
HOUSE BILL 2699

State of Washington 65th Legislature 2018 Regular Session

By Representatives Stanford, Dent, Blake, Nealey, and Eslick

Read first time 01/12/18. Referred to Committee on Agriculture & Natural Resources.

1 AN ACT Relating to exempting alcohol manufacturers from the food
2 storage warehouse license; and amending RCW 69.10.020.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 69.10.020 and 1995 c 374 s 11 are each amended to 5 read as follows:

6 (1) A food storage warehouse that is inspected for compliance
7 with the current good manufacturing practices (Title 21 C.F.R. part 8 110) on at least an annual basis by an independent sanitation 9 consultant approved by the department (~~shall be exempted from~~ 10 ~~licensure~~) is not required to be licensed under this chapter. A 11 report identifying the inspector and the inspecting entity, the date 12 of the inspection, and any violations noted on such inspection shall 13 be forwarded to the department by the food storage warehouse within 14 sixty days of the completion of the inspection. An inspection shall 15 be conducted and an inspection report for a food storage warehouse
16 shall be filed with the department at least once every twelve months
17 or the warehouse shall be licensed under this chapter and inspected 18 by the department for a period of two years.

19 (2) A food storage warehouse used to store alcohol beverages 20 manufactured or distributed under a license issued pursuant to

1 chapter 66.24 RCW is not required to be licensed under this chapter, 2 provided alcohol beverages are the only food stored in the warehouse.

--- END ---