

HB 1994 - DIGEST

Prohibits the legislative ethics board, during the forty-five day period before a primary through the end of the general election, from issuing reasonable cause determinations or complaint opinions, imposing sanctions, or recommending suspension, removal, or prosecution, for a legislator or other candidate for an office to be voted upon at that primary or general election.