EFFECT:

- Makes a prior juvenile violent felony offense count as 1/2 point when calculating an offender score for a present nonviolent felony conviction (rather than 0 points as provided in the underlying bill, and 1 point as provided in current law).
- Makes a prior juvenile serious violent offense count as 2 points when calculating an offender score for a present serious violent felony conviction (rather than 1 point as provided in the underlying bill, and 3 points as provided in current law).

- Makes a prior juvenile sex offense count as 2 points when calculating an offender score for a present sex offense conviction (rather than 1 point as provided in the underlying bill, and 3 points as provided in current law).
- Modifies specialized scoring provisions for a present Burglary in the first degree by restoring the current requirement for a prior juvenile Burglary in the second degree or Residential Burglary conviction to count as 1 point (rather than 0 points as provided in the underlying bill), but otherwise retains the provision in the underlying bill requiring a prior juvenile Burglary in the first degree conviction to count as 1 point.
- Modifies specialized scoring provisions for a present Burglary in the second degree or Residential Burglary offense by requiring a prior juvenile Burglary in the first degree conviction to count as 1 point (rather than 0 points as provided in the underlying bill, and 2 points as provided in current law) and restoring the current requirement for a prior juvenile Burglary in the second degree or Residential Burglary conviction to count as 1 point (rather than 0 points as provided in the underlying bill).
