9 college grant under (a) of this subsection, or the individual
10 institution's tuition for fifteen quarter credit hours or the 11 equivalent"

EFFECT:

- Changes the maximum Washington College Grant for students attending private four-year nonprofit institutions to the lesser of either the grant for a student attending a four-year public institution or the private institution's tuition for 15 quarter credits or the equivalent rather than $9,739 for the 2019-20 academic year with an annual increase no more than the tuition growth factor.
- Increases appropriations to the Washington Student Achievement Council to account for the change in grant amounts for students attending private four-year nonprofit institutions.

FISCAL IMPACT: Increases Workforce Education Investment Account by $6,543,000.
