EFFECT: (1) Removes example terms that Department of Health compliant marijuana products may include on a product label that describes the product's intended role in maintaining a structure or function of the body.

(2) Provides that a warning (rather than a claim) describing the psychoactive effect of a marijuana product is allowed on the product label.

27

(3) Removes the provision that allows a marijuana product label to contain a legal claim related to any non-marijuana ingredients in the product.
