1 On page 4, line 16 of the striking amendment, after "(b)" insert
2 "Each school providing comprehensive sexual health education must 3 convene a public meeting with full display and description of actual 4 instructional materials one month prior to the beginning of classroom
5 instruction. Additionally, days of classroom instruction must be 6 listed on the school calendar for parents and guardians and included
7 in school newsletters. Written notice of classroom instruction must be 8 sent with each child to the child's parent or guardian, and must be 9 returned to the school with the parent's or guardian's written consent 10 for or written excuse from participation in classroom instruction.
11 Unless and until the child's parent or guardian provides written 12 consent, the child may not participate in classroom instruction.
13 (c)"
