24 (i) Class III railroad carriers exclusively transporting 25 agricultural commodities;

1 (ii) Class III railroad corporations having not more than nine
2 employees that do not transport loaded railcars containing dangerous
3 commodities on their road; or

4 (iii) Class III railroad carriers meeting conditions consistent 5 with the intent of this statute as ordered by the commission.

6 (b) Exemptions must be issued for a specific period of time and 7 subject to regular review by the commission.

8 (4) (a) The commission may order railroad carriers to increase the 9 number of railroad employees in areas of increased risk to the 10 public, railroad employees, or the environment, or on specific trains
11 or routes, switch assignments on their road with additional numbers
12 of qualified crew members, or direct the placement of additional crew

EFFECT: (1) Removes the exception for all class III railroad carriers for certain crew sizes.

(2) Changes the crew requirements for hazardous material trains to no less than two qualified crew members or as ordered by the commission, rather than no less than three or four qualified crew members depending on the circumstances; and changes the exemption to this requirement for carriers transporting fewer than 20 loaded hazardous material cars at a speed of 25 miles per hour or less to Class III carriers, rather than Class II.

(3) Allows the commission to grant exemptions in certain circumstances.

(4) Modifies the circumstances and carriers for the commission to order increases in the number of railroad employees.

(5) Makes the fines discretionary rather than mandatory.

(6) Modifies the legislative findings; makes technical changes; and changes the term "crew" to "employee" in several places.
