As of January 23, 2020

Title: An act relating to simplifying the process for donating low-value surplus property owned by a city-owned utility.

Brief Description: Simplifying the process for donating low-value surplus property owned by a city-owned utility.

Sponsors: Senators Cleveland, Wilson, L. and Rivers.

Brief History:

Committee Activity: Local Government: 1/23/20.

Brief Summary of Bill

- Allows a city utility to lease, sell, or convey any property or equipment valued at $50,000 or less without resolution and public hearing.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Staff: Bonnie Kim (786-7316)

Background: Generally, city utilities may, by resolution and public hearing, lease, sell or convey any land, property, or equipment found by separate resolution to be surplus to the city utility's needs. The city utility must specify the fair market value or rent to be paid for the disposition of such property.

Summary of Bill: Any property or equipment valued at $50,000 or less and found to be surplus to a city utility's needs may be leased, sold, or otherwise conveyed without resolution and public hearing.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Creates Committee/Commission/Task Force that includes Legislative members: No.

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: This bill allows city utilities to implement best practices. We have a robust process to ensure that any property or equipment we want to sell is actually surplus and is safe to convey.

Persons Testifying: PRO: Brian Enslow, City of Vancouver.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: No one.
