SENATE COMMITTEE ON BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SUBCOMMITTEE TO HEALTH & LONG TERM CARE

Staff: Kevin Black (786-7747)

Background: Children's Mental Health Work Group. The Children's Mental Health Work Group (CMHWG) was established in 2016 and reauthorized in 2018 to identify barriers to accessing mental health services for children and families, and to advise the Legislature on statewide mental health services for this population. The Health Care Authority provides staff support for CMHWG, which expires in December 2020.

Family, Youth, and System Partner Roundtables. In 2009, the T.R. v. Strange and McDermott lawsuit was filed against the state relating to intensive mental health services for children enrolled in Medicaid. A settlement agreement was reached in 2013. The terms of the settlement include the establishment of an interagency governance structure to improve the coordination of and access to services for youth and their families. This governance structure requires Family, Youth, and System Partner Round Tables (FYSPRTs) at the state and regional levels. The FYSPRTs are comprised of family and youth, government, and tribal partners, and are tasked with identifying local needs and bringing forward recommendations on how to meet those needs.

Summary of Bill: The bill as referred to committee not considered.

Summary of Bill: The CMHWG is renamed the Children and Youth Behavioral Health Work Group (work group) and its focus is expanded to include behavioral health services for children from prenatal up to age 25. Membership is expanded to include:

- a representative of an organization representing persons with developmental disabilities;
- two youth representatives;
- a representative of private insurance;
- a representative from the statewide FYSPRTs; and
- a substance use disorder professional.

The focus of the work group is altered to encompass youth aged 18 to 25, young children prenatally through age 5, and youth mothers. The work group must convene an advisory group focused on school-based behavioral health and suicide prevention. An annual reporting requirement is established starting November 1, 2020. The expiration of the work group is extended six years to December 30, 2026.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Creates Committee/Commission/Task Force that includes Legislative members: Yes.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.
