1 AN ACT Relating to wage and salary information; adding new
2 sections to chapter 49.12 RCW; creating a new section; and
3 prescribing penalties.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

6 (a) Women in this state have experienced pay discrimination based 7 on salary history for decades;

8 (b) Women are regularly offered lower initial pay than men for 9 the same jobs even where their levels of education and experience are 10 the same or comparable;

11 (c) Such persistent earnings inequality for working women
12 translates into lower pay, less family income, and more children and 13 families in poverty; and

14 (d) As an important step towards gender and economic equality,
15 the legislature has recently made explicit that using prior salary
16 history to justify a wage differential between similarly employed
17 workers of different genders is unlawful discrimination under the 18 state equal pay act, and this practice is also unlawful under the 19 federal equal pay act.

20 (2) The legislature therefore intends to follow multiple other 21 states and take the additional step towards gender equality of

1 prohibiting an employer from seeking the wage or salary history of an
2 applicant for employment. Further, the legislature intends to require 3 an employer to provide information about wage scales and salaries to 4 employees.

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 49.12
6 RCW to read as follows:

7 The definitions in this section apply throughout this section and 8 sections 3 through 5 of this act unless the context clearly requires
9 otherwise.

10 (1) "Employee" means a worker who is employed in the business of 11 an employer. "Employee" includes workers performing in an executive,
12 administrative, professional, or outside sales capacity.

13 (2) "Employer" means any person, firm, corporation, partnership,
14 business trust, legal representative, or other business entity that 15 engages in any business, industry, profession, or activity in this 16 state and employs one or more employees. "Employer" includes the 17 state, any state institution, any state agency, political 18 subdivisions of the state, and any municipal corporation or quasi-
19 municipal corporation.

20 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 49.12
21 RCW to read as follows:

22 (1) An employer may not:

23 (a) Seek the wage or salary history of an applicant for 24 employment from the applicant or a current or former employer; or

25 (b) Require that an applicant's prior wage or salary history meet
26 certain criteria, except as provided in subsection (2) of this 27 section.

28 (2) An employer may confirm an applicant's wage or salary
29 history:

30 (a) If the applicant has voluntarily disclosed the applicant's
31 wage or salary history; or

32 (b) After the employer has negotiated and made an offer of 33 employment with compensation to the applicant.

34 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 49.12
35 RCW to read as follows:

1 (1) Upon the request of an applicant for employment, an employer
2 must provide the wage scale or salary range for the job title for the 3 position for which the applicant is applying.

4 (2) An employer must provide to each employee the wage scale or 5 salary range for the employee's job title upon hire, and annually and 6 upon request after hire.

7 (3) An employer satisfies the requirements of this section if the 8 wage scale or salary range for a position is available on the 9 employer's web site.

10 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 49.12
11 RCW to read as follows:

12 An employee may bring a civil action against an employer for 13 violation of section 3 or 4 of this act for: Actual damages;
14 statutory damages equal to the actual damages or five thousand
15 dollars, whichever is greater; interest of one percent per month on 16 all compensation owed; and costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. The 17 court may also order reinstatement and injunctive relief. Any wages
18 and interest owed must be calculated from the first date wages were 19 owed to the employee.

20 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its 21 application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the 22 remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other
23 persons or circumstances is not affected.
