

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2020-4645, by Representative Leavitt

1       WHEREAS, Military spouses and caregivers embody the courage, 2 sense of duty, and love of country that inspire every American; and

3       WHEREAS, Military spouses make tremendous sacrifices, including 4 enduring long separations, assuming household responsibilities, and 5 caring for children while their loved ones are away; and

6       WHEREAS, Military spouses and caregivers act with patience, 7 selflessness, and compassion while serving as the frontline of this 8 country's conscience to ensure the appropriate care of soldiers 9 returning from duty; and

10       WHEREAS, Many military spouses and primary caregivers of veterans 11 care for those with serious conditions, including traumatic brain 12 injuries and posttraumatic stress disorder; and

13       WHEREAS, Many military spouses and caregivers are also volunteers 14 in their communities who serve the needs of other military families;
15 and

16       WHEREAS, The nation benefits from the sacrifices of military 17 families and is inspired by their courage, strength, and leadership; 18 and

19       WHEREAS, Throughout the year, we honor the commitment military 20 spouses and caregivers have made to their loved ones, our country, 21 and our freedom;

22       NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington state House
23 of Representatives recognize military spouses and caregivers for

1 their service, sacrifice, and dedication to their families and their 2 country.
