6 read as follows:

7 (1) Every public middle school, junior high school, and high
8 school is strongly encouraged to include in its curriculum
9 instruction on the events of the period in modern world history known 10 as the Holocaust, ((during which six million Jews and millions of 11 non-Jews were exterminated)) the systemic, German state-sponsored 12 persecution and murder of Jews and other innocent victims by the Nazi 13 regime and its collaborators between the years 1933 and 1945. The 14 instruction may also include other examples ((from both ancient and 15 modern history where subcultures or large human populations have been 16 eradicated by the acts of humankind)) of genocide and crimes against 17 humanity. The studying of this material is intended to: Examine the 18 ramifications of prejudice, racism, and intolerance; prepare students 19 to be responsible citizens in a pluralistic democracy; and be a
20 reaffirmation of the commitment of free peoples never again to permit 21 such occurrences.

1 (2) The office of the superintendent of public instruction ((may 2 prepare and make available to all school districts instructional
3 materials for use as guidelines for instruction under this section)), 4 in collaboration with an expert Washington nonprofit organization
5 that teaches the lessons of the Holocaust, must:

6 (a) Develop best practices and guidelines for high quality 7 instruction under this section; and

8 (b) Encourage and support middle school, junior high school, and 9 high school teachers in implementing these best practices and 10 guidelines.

11 (3) Beginning September 1, 2020, middle schools, junior high 12 schools, and high schools that offer instruction as described in 13 subsection (1) of this section must follow the best practices and 14 guidelines developed under subsection (2) of this section.

15 (4) The office of the superintendent of public instruction must 16 electronically publish the best practices and guidelines developed 17 under this section on an annual basis.

18 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28A.300
19 RCW to read as follows:

20 Subject to the availability of amounts appropriated for this 21 specific purpose, and in order to broaden the reach of the 22 instruction to public school students, the office of the 23 superintendent of public instruction must work with an expert 24 Washington nonprofit organization that teaches the lessons of the 25 Holocaust, to support and train Washington middle school, junior high 26 school, and high school teachers who teach in subjects relevant to 27 the topic, in instructing the lessons of the Holocaust and other acts 28 of genocide using the best practices and guidelines for the high 29 quality instruction developed under RCW 28A.300.115.

30 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) By November 14, 2022, the office of

34 instructing the lessons of the Holocaust and other acts of genocide
35 about:

36 (a) How the best practices and guidelines for high quality
37 instruction on the events of the period in modern world history known

1 as the Holocaust developed under RCW 28A.300.115 are being 2 implemented statewide;

3 (b) Whether, and how, the best practices and guidelines should be 4 modified;

5 (c) The number of teachers trained and supported on using the 6 best practices and guidelines in the past two years; and
