

HB 1031 - DIGEST

Encourages maintenance and repair of bulkheads by removing an uncertain, lengthy, and potentially costly process that ultimately cannot prevent what is legally authorized.

States that decisions made by all government branches regarding repair or maintenance of existing bulkheads or bank protection structures are not subject to certain requirements of the state environmental policy act.