

HB 1253 - DIGEST

Requires law enforcement personnel who were initially employed on or after January 1, 1990, to commence basic law enforcement training, that complies with adopted standards of the criminal justice training commission, during the first two months of employment.