

HB 1289 - DIGEST

Revises the uniform controlled substances act regarding applications for marijuana licenses; performance of authorized management services for certain entities for a marijuana licensee or group of licensees under common ownership; state resident requirements; and the requirement that licensed marijuana producers, processors, or retailers or license applicants must submit an attestation signed by a bona fide labor organization to the state liquor and cannabis board.