

HB 1395 - DIGEST

Protects construction employees by ensuring that employment obligations of wage and benefit contribution payments are made for their work on privately funded construction projects; and protects construction employers who are put at a competitive disadvantage by others that fail to pay wages and benefit contributions.

Encourages self-policing in the construction industry and gives direct contractors the means to monitor the wage and benefit contribution payments of subcontractors.