

HB 1492 - DIGEST

Revises the state industrial insurance act regarding the computation of wages and lost earning capacity of workers, and additional payments for prior pensioners.

Requires an employer insured with the department of labor and industries, who pays a worker's portion of a health insurance premium in addition to the employer portion, to be eligible for reimbursement of the amount he or she paid for the worker's portion of the premium.