

HB 1573 - DIGEST

Prohibits the department of social and health services from requiring applicants for temporary assistance for needy families to attend an orientation as a condition of eligibility.

Requires a family's grant to be reduced, if a recipient refuses for four consecutive months to engage in work and work activities required by the department, and allows the grant to be terminated if the department determines it appropriate.