

HB 1737 - DIGEST

Prohibits a city or a code city from requiring the owner of a property located outside its corporate limits to enter into a utility service annexation covenant as a condition of extending utilities to the property.