

HB 1860 - DIGEST

Requires schools to develop a plan to prevent elevated lead levels in water used for drinking and cooking.

Requires schools, at least every three years, to test each outlet used for drinking water or cooking in each school built before 2000 for lead.

Establishes notice procedures for the school to follow if testing shows that water at the school has a high level of lead.