

HB 1872 - DIGEST

Authorizes the attorney general and prosecutors to issue administrative subpoenas to providers of electronic communication services and remote computing services in order to obtain certain subscriber information in investigations involving the sexual exploitation of children.

Establishes requirements governing disclosure of the subpoenas, and court actions to enforce, modify, or quash issued subpoenas, and provides immunity from civil liability for good faith compliance with a subpoena.