

SB 5072 - DIGEST

Revises the extreme risk protection order act regarding:

- (1) A respondent who is under the age of eighteen;
- (2) Appointment of guardian or guardian ad litem not needed if the respondent is at least sixteen years old; and
- (3) The court's requirement to advise a parent or guardian of their obligation to safely secure any firearms on the premises.