EFFECT: Establishes the Consumer Data Privacy Commission, with four legislative members and one Governor-appointed member, to consult with the Attorney General on implementation and enforcement of the bill and other matters related to consumer data privacy.
Requires the Attorney General, prior to bringing an enforcement action, to consult with the Commission and request the Commission's authorization to proceed with the action. Authorizes the Commission to permit or veto any proposed enforcement action by the Attorney General by a simple majority vote of all members of the Commission.
