Background:

The Mortgage Lending Fraud Prosecution Account (Account) will expire on June 30, 2021. The Account is in the custody of the State Treasurer, and only the Director of the Department of Financial Institutions or the Director's designee may authorize expenditures from the Account. Expenditures from the Account may be used only for criminal prosecution of fraudulent activities related to mortgage lending fraud crimes.

The Account contains revenue from a $1 surcharge collected by the county auditor at the time of recording of each deed of trust. This surcharge does not apply to assignments or substitutions of previously recorded deeds of trust. The auditor may retain up to 5 percent of the surcharge, and the remainder is transmitted monthly to the State Treasurer, who deposits the funds into the Account. The surcharge will expire on June 30, 2021.

Summary of Bill:

The expiration date for the Mortgage Lending Fraud Prosecution Account and for the $1 surcharge on deeds of trust is extended until June 30, 2027.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill contains an emergency clause and takes effect immediately.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) Mortgage lending fraud is complex in scope and could be difficult for local authorities to handle without the additional dedicated resources to investigate complex cases in real estate. House Bill 1104 authorizes the continuation of the $1 surcharge collected by the county auditor and the Mortgage Lending Fraud Prosecution Account, and allows for sustained and sustainable prosecution of mortgage lending fraud crimes.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: Representative Ryu, prime sponsor; Russell Brown, Washington Association of Prosecuting Attorneys; Hugo Torres, King County Prosecutor's Office; and Cindy Fazio, Department of Financial Institutions.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: None.
