Brief Description: Making technical cross-reference corrections in statutes governing unemployment insurance.

Sponsors: Representatives Sells, Berry, Wicks, Simmons and Harris-Talley; by request of Employment Security Department.

Brief History: Passed House: 2/9/22, 95-0.

Committee Activity: Labor, Commerce & Tribal Affairs: 2/16/22.

<h3>Brief Summary of Bill</h3>

- Corrects cross references in unemployment insurance laws.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON LABOR, COMMERCE & TRIBAL AFFAIRS

Staff: Susan Jones (786-7404)

Background: During the 2021 legislative session, the Legislature passed ESSB 5061, which amended multiple sections of the unemployment insurance title. In addition to its substantive changes, ESSB 5061 also removed obsolete statutory language and made other technical corrections. The removal of obsolete language in the section dealing with employer charging resulted in misaligned cross references:

- within that same section; and
- in a related section involving notification to employers of the amount of the employer's unemployment insurance contribution rate attributable to each component of the contribution rate.

Summary of Bill: Cross references within unemployment insurance laws involving
