Brief Description: Providing authority to licensed companies to allow licensed mortgage loan originators to work from their residences without the company licensing the residence as a branch office of the company.

Sponsors: Senators Dozier and Mullet; by request of Department of Financial Institutions.

Brief History:

Committee Activity: Business, Financial Services & Trade: 1/12/21.

Brief Summary of Bill

- Provides mortgage loan originators the flexibility to work from their residence under certain circumstances.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON BUSINESS, FINANCIAL SERVICES & TRADE

Staff: Clinton McCarthy (786-7319)

Background: Under existing statute, mortgage loan originators licensed by the Department of Financial Institutions must originate mortgage loans from a licensed location. If a mortgage loan was originated from someone's residence, it would be a violation of the Consumer Loan Act, unless the residence is licensed for mortgage loan origination.

Summary of Bill: Mortgage loan originators are provided the flexibility to work from their home without licensing their home as a branch location, provided:

- state security requirements are in place;
- physical business records may not be kept at the residence; and
