both. The court may require participation in a smoking cessation program. Municipal and district courts have jurisdiction to enforce these infractions.

A peace officer or Liquor and Cannabis Board (LCB) enforcement officer may detain a person purchasing, attempting to purchase, or possessing tobacco products or vapor products for a reasonable period of time to determine if the person is under 18 years of age. An officer may also seize tobacco products or vapor products possessed by a person under 18 years of age.

Retailers are prohibited from selling tobacco products and vapor products to persons under the age of 21. A licensed retailer must prominently display a sign displaying this prohibition.

In 2019, the Legislature enacted EHB 1074 which raised the age of prohibition for selling tobacco products and vapor products by a licensed retailer or wholesaler of tobacco or vapor products from 18 to 21 years of age.

Tobacco product means a product that contains tobacco that is intended for human use. Vapor product means any noncombustible product that may contain nicotine and that employs a heating element, power source, electronic circuit, or other electronic, chemical, or mechanical means, regardless of shape or size, that can be used to produce vapor or aerosol from a solution or other substance. It includes an electronic cigarette, electronic cigar, electronic cigarillo, electronic pipe, or similar product or device and any vapor cartridge or other container that may contain nicotine in a solution or other form.

Summary of Bill: A peace officer or enforcement officer of the LCB may not:

- detain a person purchasing, attempting to purchase, or possessing tobacco products or vapor products to determine if a the person is under the age of 18; or
- seize tobacco products or vapor products possessed by a person under the age of 18.

The LCB, local enforcement agencies, or local health departments may coordinate controlled purchases of tobacco products or vapor products involving people under the age of 21, and under the age of 18 with parental authorization, to enforce the ban against selling tobacco products or vapor products to those who are under the age of 21.

The class 3 infraction prohibiting purchasing, attempting to purchase, possessing, obtaining or attempting to obtain tobacco products or vapor products is repealed.

This act is not to be interpreted to limit the ability of a peace officer or an enforcement officer of the LCB to enforce legal prohibitions against selling tobacco and vapor products to people under the age of 21.
