SENATE COMMITTEE ON LABOR, COMMERCE & TRIBAL AFFAIRS

Staff: Susan Jones (786-7404)

Background: Workers' Compensation—General. Workers who, in the course of employment, are injured or disabled from an occupational disease are entitled to workers' compensation benefits, which may include medical, temporary time-loss, vocational rehabilitation benefits, and permanent disabilities benefits. "Occupational disease" means a disease or infection as arises naturally and proximately out of employment under the mandatory or elective adoption provisions of this title. The Department of Labor and Industries (L&I) administers the state's workers' compensation system.

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

Fixing the Amount of Worker's Attorneys' and Witness Fees in Court Appeals. A reasonable fee for the services of the worker's or beneficiary's attorney must be fixed by the court if:

- on appeal to the superior or appellate court from a Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals (BIIA) decision and order, the decision and order is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a worker or beneficiary; or
- in cases where a party other than the worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained.

In fixing the fee, the court must take into consideration the fee fixed by L&I and BIIA for the attorney's services before L&I and BIIA. If the court finds that the fee fixed by L&I or BIIA is inadequate for such services, or no fee was fixed, then the court shall fix a fee for the attorney's services before L&I or BIIA, in addition to the fee fixed for the services in the court.

Payment of Fees and Costs. The attorney's fee fixed by the court, for services before the court only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs must be paid out of L&I's administrative fund if in:

- a worker or beneficiary appeal, the decision and order of BIIA is reversed or modified and if the L&I accident fund or medical aid fund is affected by the litigation;
- an appeal by L&I or the employer, the worker or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained; or
- an appeal by a worker involving a state fund employer with 25 employees or less, in which L&I does not appear and defend, and the BIIA order in favor of the employer is sustained.

In the case of self-insured employers, the attorneys' fees fixed by the court, for services before the court only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs must be paid directly by the self-insured employer.

Attorneys' fees in Appeals—Certain Occupational Disease Presumptions. In an appeal to the superior or appellate court involving the presumption of occupational diseases related to certain firefighter, fire investigators, and law enforcement officers, the attorney's fee must be paid as provided in the presumption statute.

Summary of Bill: Attorneys' and Witness Fees in Court Appeals. The employer or retrospective rating group will pay a worker's or beneficiary's attorneys' fees, fees of medical and other witnesses, and other statutory costs when the employer or retrospective rating group appeals a BIIA decision, and the court sustains in full or in part the worker's or beneficiary's right to relief.

The provisions involving payments of attorneys' fees and costs when a worker appeals a BIIA decision and the court reverses, modifies, or grants additional relief; when an employer has 25 employees or less; and self-insures remains the same. Technical changes are made.

Attorneys' Fees in Appeals—Certain Occupational Disease Presumptions. The presumption regarding certain Hanford site workers is added to the provisions requiring attorney's fees to be paid pursuant to that presumption statute.
