Read first time 01/12/21. Referred to Committee on Civil Rights & Judiciary.

1 AN ACT Relating to establishing firearms-related safety measures
2 to increase public safety by prohibiting the manufacture, possession, 3 distribution, importation, selling, offering for sale, purchasing, or 4 transfer of large capacity magazines, by allowing continued
5 possession of large capacity magazines limited to possession prior 6 to, and inheritance on or after, the effective date of this act,
7 subject to certain restrictions on the ability to sell or transfer 8 such large capacity magazines and permitting their possession only on 9 the owner's property or while engaged in lawful outdoor recreational 10 activities or use at a licensed shooting range, or when transporting 11 the large capacity magazine to or from these locations, and by 12 providing limited exemptions applicable to certain government 13 officers, agents, employees, or contractors, law enforcement and 14 corrections officers and military members, licensed firearms
15 manufacturers, dealers, and gunsmiths, and persons engaged in sport 16 shooting or permanently relinquishing a large capacity magazine to 17 law enforcement; amending RCW 9.41.010; adding a new section to 18 chapter 9.41 RCW; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties.

19 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

20 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that 21 gun violence is a threat to the public health and safety of

1 Washingtonians. Firearms equipped with large capacity magazines
2 increase casualties by allowing a shooter to keep firing for longer 3 periods of time without reloading. Large capacity magazines have been 4 used in all 10 of the deadliest mass shootings since 2009, and mass
5 shooting events from 2009 to 2018 where the use of large capacity
6 magazines caused twice as many deaths and 14 times as many injuries.
7 Documentary evidence following gun rampages, including the 2014
8 shooting at Seattle Pacific University, reveals many instances where 9 victims were able to escape or disarm the shooter during a pause to 10 reload, and such opportunities are necessarily reduced when large 11 capacity magazines are used. In addition, firearms equipped with 12 large capacity magazines account for an estimated 22 to 36 percent of 13 crime guns and up to 40 percent of crime guns used in serious violent
14 crimes. Based on this evidence, and on studies showing that mass 15 shooting fatalities declined during the 10-year period when the 16 federal assault weapon and large capacity magazine ban was in effect, 17 the legislature finds that restricting large capacity magazines is 18 likely to reduce gun deaths and injuries. The legislature further 19 finds that this is a well-calibrated policy based on evidence that 20 magazine capacity limits do not interfere with responsible, lawful 21 self-defense, and data self-reported by the gun industry showing that 22 the vast majority of handgun magazines hold 10 or fewer rounds. The 23 legislature further finds that the threats to public safety posed by 24 large capacity magazines are heightened given current conditions. Our 25 country is in the midst of a pandemic, economic recession, social 26 tensions, and reckonings over racial justice. The year 2020 has seen 27 a sharp increase in gun sales and gun violence, as well as fears over 28 gun violence and incidents of armed intimidation. In this volatile 29 atmosphere, the legislature declares that it is time to enhance 30 public health and safety by limiting the sale or transfer of large 31 capacity magazines in Washington.

32 Sec. 2. RCW 9.41.010 and 2020 c 29 s 3 are each amended to read
