

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2022-4637, by Representatives Leavitt, Taylor, Robertson, J. Johnson, Bronoske, Jacobsen, MacEwen, Ryu, Walen, Slatter, Goehner, Ramel, Orwall, Young, Wylie, and Dolan

1 WHEREAS, Dr. John Utendale broke barriers throughout his life,
2 first in professional hockey, and then in higher education in 3 Washington state; and

4 WHEREAS, Dr. Utendale was the first black man to sign an NHL
5 contract, and played for years for a number of teams such as the 6 Quebec Aces and the Edmonton Flyers; and

7 WHEREAS, During his playing days, he began his studies and earned 8 his teaching certificate, later teaching junior high math, science, 9 and physical education; and

10 WHEREAS, While playing full time for the Spokane Jets, Dr.
11 Utendale earned his master's degree from Eastern Washington
12 University; and

13 WHEREAS, Washington State University recruited Dr. Utendale to 14 serve as Assistant Dean of Students, and during his time there he 15 earned his doctorate in education while teaching, coaching Little 16 League Baseball, and serving on the Washington State Human Rights 17 Commission; and

18 WHEREAS, He then joined Western Washington University as its 19 first black faculty member of the College of Education, leading the 20 university's Student Personnel Administration graduate program for 21 more than 25 years as well as serving other roles such as head of the 22 Higher Education Administration; and

