
SENATE BILL 5819

State of Washington

67th Legislature

2022 Regular Session

By Senators Braun, Brown, Conway, Dozier, Frockt, Keiser, Randall, Rivers, Saldaña, Short, Trudeau, Warnick, and L. Wilson

Read first time 01/11/22. Referred to Committee on Health & Long Term Care.

1 AN ACT Relating to the developmental disabilities
2 administration's no-paid services caseload; and adding a new section
3 to chapter 71A.10 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 71A.10
6 RCW to read as follows:

7 (1) The department shall hire two permanent, full-time employees
8 to regularly review and maintain the no-paid services caseload. This 9 includes, but is not limited to, updating the no-paid services
10 caseload to accurately reflect a current headcount of eligible 11 individuals and identifying the number of individuals contacted who 12 are currently interested in receiving a paid service from the 13 developmental disabilities administration and if the individual would 14 like services now or within the next year. Beginning December 1, 15 2022, the department shall annually report this information to the 16 governor and the appropriate committees of the legislature.

17 (2) A client on the no-paid services caseload shall receive case
18 resource management services. The case resource manager's duties 19 include, but are not limited to: (a) Contacting and responding to the 20 client to discuss the client's service needs, (b) explaining to the 21 client the service options available through the department or other

1 community resources, and (c) assisting the client with the assessment
2 and service authorization process.
