EFFECT: (1) Maintains the requirement that a school district conduct an evaluation and determine whether a student is eligible for special education services, within 60 calendar days of receiving a parent's consent to evaluate the student, except as provided in rule of the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI).

(2) Strikes language providing that, when the evaluation activities include student observations in the classroom or school setting, the 60 calendar days for conducting the evaluation following receipt of a parent's consent to evaluate may be suspended during school holidays of a week or longer.

(3) Specifies, in accordance with Part B of the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, the OSPI may establish research-based timeframes, that may be longer or shorter than the 60-calendar day timeframe, for specific types of evaluations or categories of disabilities.

- (4) Strikes language providing examples of circumstances that may warrant an evaluation timeframe longer than 60 calendar days.
