EFFECT: Strikes the requirement for the Attorney General to develop and publish model policies for law enforcement agency accountability programs.

Requires the Attorney General, by January 1, 2024, to prepare and submit a plan to divest the Attorney General's Office (AGO) of all law enforcement and law enforcement-related programs, activities, and involvement.

Delays the effective date of the provisions in the act relating to the Attorney General's investigative authority and authority to bring an action against a law enforcement or local corrections agency to 90 days after the Attorney General issues a written certification that the AGO has been fully divested of all law enforcement and law enforcement-related programs, activities, and involvement.
