EFFECT: Creates a College in the High School (CHS) pilot program at a private not-for-profit four-year institution of higher education that should have demonstrated experience in offering CHS programs, selected and administered by the Student Achievement Council. Requires state appropriations for the pilot program be funded for up to ten CHS courses at a rate of $6,000 per course. Expands the definition of "institutions of higher education" by including any university, college, school, or institute in the state of Washington offering instruction beyond the high school level that is a member institution of an accrediting association recognized by rule of the Student Achievement Council.
