By Committee on Business, Financial Services, Gaming & Trade

NOT ADOPTED 02/29/2024

1 Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the 2 following:

3 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.290
4 RCW to read as follows:

5 (1) The office of international relations and protocol shall 6 develop a strategic international engagement plan to guide
7 Washington's international economic development and engagement
8 consistent with RCW 43.290.005. The plan must create a common 9 framework for the state's engagement in international activities, to 10 include: Trade missions, economic development, and interpersonal 11 knowledge exchanges.

12 (2) The office may consult with entities relevant to Washington's 13 international presence when developing the strategic plan, including: 14 Associate development organizations, business and civic 15 organizations, consular officials, executive and small cabinet
16 agencies, institutions of higher education, immigration and labor 17 organizations, public ports, state offices, and private and nonprofit 18 organizations.

19 (3) The office may utilize the resources of Results Washington 20 for technical and operational assistance in developing the strategic 21 plan.

22 (4) The office must complete an initial strategic plan by July 1, 23 2025. This strategic plan shall undergo periodic review to measure 24 progress and outcomes at least every two and a half years thereafter, 25 and it shall be fully updated at least every five years thereafter.

26 Sec. 2. RCW 43.290.005 and 1991 c 24 s 1 are each amended to 27 read as follows:

28 The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to create 29 an office of international relations and protocol in order to: Make 30 international relations and protocol (~~(a broad-based)~~) focused(~~(r)~~) 31 and functional (~~(part of)~~) across state government; provide

1 leadership in state government with respect to international 2 relations and assist the legislature and state elected officials with 3 international issues affecting the state; establish coordinated 4 methods for responding to foreign governments and institutions
5 seeking cooperative activities with and within Washington; coordinate 6 and improve communication and resource sharing among various state
7 offices, agencies, and educational institutions with international 8 programs; develop and promote state policies that increase 9 international ((literacy)) engagement and cross-cultural 10 understanding among Washington state's citizens; expand Washington 11 state's international cooperation role in ((such)) vital areas ((as 12 the environment, education, science, culture, and sports)) of public 13 policy, including but not limited to economic development, trade and 14 industry, and tourism and sports, as well as education, culture, 15 science, and resilience; ((establish coordinated methods for 16 responding to the increasing number of inquiries by foreign 17 governments and institutions seeking cooperative activities within 18 Washington state; provide leadership in state government on 19 international relations and assistance to the legislature and state 20 elected officials on international issues affecting the state;)) and 21 assist with multistate international efforts((; and coordinate and 22 improve communication and resource sharing among various state
23 offices, agencies, and educational institutions with international 24 programs)).

25 It is the purpose of this chapter to bring these functions 26 together in a new office under the office of the governor in order to 27 establish a visible, coordinated, and comprehensive approach to 28 international relations and protocol.

29 Sec. 3. RCW 43.290.020 and 1991 c 24 s 4 are each amended to 30 read as follows:

31 The office of international relations and protocol may:

32 (1) Create ((temporary)) advisory committees as necessary to 33 ((deal with specific international issues)) execute its 34 responsibilities. The duration and composition of such advisory 35 committees may be determined by the office. Advisory committee 36 representation may include statewide elected officials from the 37 executive branch, or their designees, as well as representatives of 38 the legislative branch and the judiciary. Representation may also 39 include external organizations such as ((the Seattle consular

1 ~~corps,))~~ world affairs councils, public ports, world trade 2 organizations, (~~(private nonprofit organizations dealing with~~ 3 ~~international education or international environmental issues,~~
4 ~~organizations concerned with international understanding, businesses~~ 5 ~~with experience in international relations, or other organizations~~ 6 ~~deemed appropriate by the director)) associate development 7 organizations, business and civic organizations, consular officials, 8 executive and small cabinet agencies, institutions of higher 9 education, immigration and labor organizations, public ports, state 10 offices, and private and nonprofit organizations. The governor, or 11 the governor's designee, shall chair such advisory committees;~~

12 (2) In conjunction with the legislative committee on economic 13 development and international relations, designate foreign 14 jurisdictions, such as national governments, subnational governments, 15 and international organizations, as jurisdictions of strategic 16 importance to Washington;

17 (3) Establish procedures and requirements for operations and 18 expenditures to support and enhance state government partnership and 19 relationships with foreign jurisdictions, particularly those 20 identified as of strategic importance. Such operations and 21 expenditures are intended to strengthen state agency economic 22 development and policy cooperation, enable the implementation of the 23 strategic international engagement plan, as determined by the 24 director, and provide resources for government-to-government 25 engagement, as well as support of inbound and outbound delegations to 26 and from Washington state;

27 (4) Accept or request grants or gifts from citizens and other 28 private sources to be used to defray the costs of appropriate hosting 29 of foreign dignitaries, including appropriate gift-giving and 30 reciprocal gift-giving, or other activities of the office. The office 31 shall open and maintain a bank account into which it shall deposit
32 all money received under this subsection. Such money and the interest 33 accruing thereon shall not constitute public funds, shall be kept 34 segregated and apart from funds of the state, and shall not be 35 subject to appropriation or allotment by the state or subject to 36 chapter 43.88 RCW.

37 Sec. 4. RCW 43.330.065 and 2023 c 470 s 2081 are each amended to 38 read as follows:

1 (~~The department of commerce, in consultation with the office of~~ 2 ~~protocol, the office of the secretary of state, the department of~~ 3 ~~agriculture, and the employment security department[,])~~) (1) The 4 office of international relations and protocol and the legislative 5 committee on economic development and international relations, in 6 consultation with the department of commerce, the department of 7 agriculture, and other state agencies and offices as appropriate, 8 shall jointly identify up to ~~((fifteen countries))~~ 15 foreign 9 jurisdictions that are of strategic importance to the development and 10 diversification of Washington's international trade relations.

11 (2) When designating such jurisdictions of strategic importance, 12 the office and committee shall consider factors including:

13 (a) Existing or potential partnerships in key industrial sectors;

14 (b) The presence of cultural and people-to-people ties;

15 (c) The state's economic development priorities and shared 16 interests, consistent with the state strategic international 17 engagement plan;

18 (d) The presence of international trade offices or other program-19 based engagement conducted by state agencies; and 20 (e) Historic or existing bilateral agreements established on a 21 government-to-government basis.

22 (3) A foreign jurisdiction may not be designated as a 23 jurisdiction of strategic importance under this section if it is 24 currently subject to United States government sanctions for and has 25 been identified by the United States department of state as being 26 engaged in state-sponsored terrorism.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.290
28 RCW to read as follows:

29 The office of international relations and protocol shall:

30 (1) Advise and assist the governor, the legislature, and other 31 independently elected officials on international developments that 32 may affect the state;

33 (2) Establish and build government-to-government relationships 34 between the state, foreign governments, and international 35 organizations;

36 (3) Coordinate protocol for foreign dignitaries visiting the 37 governor, the legislature, the judiciary, and other state agencies 38 and offices, including the appropriate criteria and procedures for

1 the signing of bilateral agreements by the governor on behalf of the 2 state of Washington;

3 (4) Advise, coordinate, and support engagement between the state, 4 foreign governments, and international partners;

5 (5) Establish, in coordination with the office of the premier of 6 British Columbia, an intergovernmental exchange between the state and 7 British Columbia, cochaired by the governor and the premier of 8 British Columbia or their designees, concerning issues of mutual 9 interests;

10 (6) Designate an international engagement advisory committee to 11 leverage the expertise of the state's international engagement 12 community;

13 (7) Assist institutions of higher education in implementing 14 programs for international cooperation and student exchange; and 15 (8) Improve coordination between state government and the 16 Washington tourism marketing authority.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 44.04
18 RCW to read as follows:

19 A Washington state—British Columbia interparliamentary exchange 20 group is created. The purpose of the group is to facilitate 21 legislator-to-legislator communication between the two governments, 22 in coordination with the province of British Columbia. The state's 23 representative for the group is the chair of the legislative 24 committee on economic development and international relations.

25 Sec. 7. RCW 43.15.050 and 2003 c 265 s 1 are each amended to 26 read as follows:

27 The legislative international trade account is created in the 28 custody of the state treasurer. All moneys received by the president 29 of the senate and the secretary of state from gifts, grants, and 30 endowments for international trade hosting, international relations, 31 and international missions activities must be deposited in the 32 account. Only private, nonpublic gifts, grants, and endowments may be 33 deposited in the account. A person, as defined in RCW 42.52.010, may 34 not donate, gift, grant, or endow more than five thousand dollars per 35 calendar year to the legislative international trade account.
36 Expenditures from the account may be used only for the purposes of 37 international trade hosting, international relations, and 38 international trade mission activities, (~~excluding travel and~~

1 ~~lodging,~~) in which the president and members of the senate, members 2 of the house of representatives, and the secretary of state
3 participate in an official capacity. An appropriation is not required 4 for expenditures. All requests by individual legislators for use of 5 funds from this account must be first approved by the secretary of 6 the senate for members of the senate or the chief clerk of the house 7 of representatives for members of the house of representatives. All 8 expenditures from the account shall be authorized by the final signed 9 approval of (~~the chief clerk of the house of representatives, the~~ 10 ~~secretary of the senate, and~~) the president of the senate.

11 Sec. 8. RCW 43.15.060 and 2020 c 114 s 20 are each amended to 12 read as follows:

13 (1) Economic development and in particular international trade, 14 tourism, and investment have become increasingly important to 15 Washington, affecting the state's employment, revenues, and general 16 economic well-being. Additionally, economic trends are rapidly 17 changing and the international marketplace has become increasingly 18 competitive as states and countries seek to improve and safeguard 19 their own economic well-being. The purpose of the legislative 20 committee on economic development and international relations is to 21 provide responsive and consistent involvement by the legislature in 22 economic development to maintain a healthy state economy and to 23 provide employment opportunities to Washington residents.

24 (2) There is created a legislative committee on economic 25 development and international relations which shall consist of 26 (~~six~~) eight senators and (~~six~~) eight representatives from the 27 legislature and the lieutenant governor who shall serve as 28 chairperson. The senate members of the committee shall be appointed 29 by the president of the senate and the house members of the committee 30 shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. Not more than 31 (~~three~~) four members from each house shall be from the same 32 political party. Vacancies occurring shall be filled by the 33 appointing authority.

34 Sec. 9. RCW 43.15.090 and 1985 c 467 s 23 are each amended to 35 read as follows:

36 The legislative committee on economic development and 37 international relations shall cooperate, act, and function with 38 legislative committees, executive agencies, and with the councils or

1 committees of other states and of provinces and territories of Canada 2 similar to this committee, and with other interstate research
3 organizations.

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. RCW 43.15.085 (Legislative committee on 5 economic development and international relations—Expenses) and 1985 c 6 467 s 22 are each repealed.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. RCW 43.330.065 is recodified as a section 8 in chapter 43.290 RCW."

9 On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "leadership;" strike the 10 remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.290.005, 11 43.290.020, 43.330.065, 43.15.050, 43.15.060, and 43.15.090; adding 12 new sections to chapter 43.290 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 13 44.04 RCW; recodifying RCW 43.330.065; and repealing RCW 43.15.085."

EFFECT: Increases membership of LCEDIR from 12 to 16 legislators.

Removes the prohibition on reimbursing travel and lodging expenses from the Legislative International Trade Account.

Removes the process for LCEDIR members to be reimbursed via vouchers drawn on legislatively appropriated funds.

Clarifies that a foreign jurisdiction may not be considered a "jurisdiction of strategic importance" if it is currently subject to United States government sanctions and has been identified by the United States Department of State as being engaged in state-sponsored terrorism.
