SENATE COMMITTEE ON WAYS & MEANS

Staff: Michele Alishahi (786-7433)

Background: Washington College Grant. The State Need Grant was modified in 2019, and renamed the Washington College Grant (WCG). The WCG is the state's largest financial aid program, and provides awards to low-income students to pursue postsecondary education. The WCG is an entitlement program with guaranteed awards for those students who qualify. The WCG award amount varies based on the institution the student attends and the student's family income. An eligible student may receive a WCG for five years or up to 125 percent of the published length of the student's program.

College Bound Scholarship. The College Bound Scholarship (CBS) program was established in 2007 to provide guaranteed four-year tuition to students from low-income families. To receive the CBS, a student must graduate from high school with at least a C grade point average, have no felony convictions, and have a family income that does not exceed 65 percent of the state median family income. The student must maintain satisfactory academic progress and may not receive the scholarship for more than four full-time years.

Passport to Careers. The Passport to Careers program is comprised of the Passport to College and Passport to Apprenticeship grant programs. These programs serve former foster youth and unaccompanied homeless youth. An individual is eligible for a maximum of five years or until age 26. The total award an individual may receive must not exceed the equivalent amount that would have been awarded for the individual to attend a public university for five years with the highest annual tuition and state-mandated fees.

Summary of Bill: A student is eligible to receive an award under the WCG, CBS, Passport to College, or Passport to Apprenticeships for six years or up to 150 percent of the published length of the student's program, or the credit or clock-hour equivalent. The requirement that a student use a passport award before age 26 is eliminated.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Creates Committee/Commission/Task Force that includes Legislative members: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony (Higher Education & Workforce Development):
PRO: Access to higher education expands opportunities in many ways. But each student's journey is unique and various factors can make it hard to complete. The maximum to receive state aid varies across programs and all are shorter than the federal standard. The Washington College Grant is the most generous and equitable program in the country. While the WGC will last for 15 quarters, the federal pell grant lasts for 18. Inconsistencies like these make it difficult for low and middle-income students to finish. Consistency across programs will provide predictable support and increase access. Only about 1 in 20 students will continue on to a sixth year. But it makes sense to align the eligibility for all our programs. As a student that has had many health struggles it may take me longer to complete my degree. I am not alone. Having extra time to complete will help students with barriers to complete. Extending eligibility supports equitable access. The shortened financial aid timeframes compared to federal aid presents a meaningful financial cliff for many students. Students should not have to be financial aid experts to be able to complete their programs. The varying time frames of financial aid programs adds unnecessary stress for students. Collectively we have not done enough for foster youth to achieve their educational goals at equitable rates. Of all student demographics, students in foster care will disproportionately benefit from the changes in this bill. At my institution, over 60 percent of my peers are recipients of state financial aid. Extending access to these programs will allow low and middle income students to invest in their future.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony (Ways & Means): PRO: For those within one year of losing access to their state financial aid, this legislation is a worthwhile investment in making sure they can earn a degree or credential without taking on student loan debt or dropping out altogether. If we've already invested in students for five years, why wouldn't we stick with those that need just a little extra time to achieve their degree? This bill helps low-income students who have to balance curriculum, mental health illnesses, disabilities, unexpected changes and still be able to have access to higher education. Many potential Passport Partnership Program recipients aren't eligible because of their age, the average age for construction trade apprenticeships is 32.
