1 WHEREAS, 111 years ago, Juliette Gordon Low organized the first 2 Girl Scout troop in Savannah, Georgia. At a time in which women in 3 the United States were not allowed to vote, this gathering of 18 4 women all believed that they could do anything; and

5 WHEREAS, Over 50 million women in the United States today were 6 Girl Scouts during their childhood; and

7 WHEREAS, 58 percent of women serving in the United States House
8 of Representatives and 72 percent of female United States Senators 9 are Girl Scout Alumni; and

10 WHEREAS, Girl Scouts of Western Washington, Girl Scouts of 11 Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho, and Girl Scouts of Oregon and 12 Southwest Washington councils are proud to provide a safe learning
13 environment for scouts of all backgrounds through the end of high 14 school; and

15 WHEREAS, Girl Scouts is known for its cookies. Cookie season is a 16 time for scouts to develop business ethics, money management, and 17 people skills. From confidence-building and goal-setting, to 18 understanding profit margins and digital marketing, cookie season is 19 a hands-on educational experience unlike any other; and

20 WHEREAS, Girl Scouts is about so much more than cookies, it
21 allows scouts to learn about leadership, civic engagement,
22 volunteerism, business, outdoors, environmental stewardship,

1 planning, financial literacy, travel, STEM, and many other skills.
2 There is something tailored to each scout's interests; and

3 WHEREAS, Girl Scouting provides opportunities to girls to develop 4 skills essential to effective leadership including developing a
5 strong sense of self, displaying positive values, seeking challenges,
6 forming healthy relationships, and engaging in community problem 7 solving; and

8 WHEREAS, Girl Scouts is a place where girls can make friends, 9 have fun, find adventure, and give back to their communities; and

10 WHEREAS, Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and 11 character, who make the world a better place;

12 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives
13 recognize the Girl Scouts for its services to the youth of the state 14 and the development of the next generation of leaders.
