

SENATE RESOLUTION

8684

By Senators Fortunato, Stanford, Torres, Warnick, and Cleveland

1 WHEREAS, There are nearly 7,000 diseases and conditions
2 considered rare (each affecting fewer than 200,000 Americans) in the 3 United States, according to the National Institutes of Health; and

4 WHEREAS, While each of these diseases may affect small numbers of 5 people, rare diseases as a group affect 25,000,000-30,000,000
6 Americans and 750,000 Washingtonians; and

7 WHEREAS, Many rare diseases are serious and debilitating 8 conditions that have a significant impact on the lives of those 9 affected; and

10 WHEREAS, The Food and Drug Administration has approved drugs and 11 biologics for more than 880 rare disease indications, but millions of 12 Americans still have rare diseases for which there is no approved 13 treatment; and

14 WHEREAS, Individuals and families affected by rare diseases often 15 experience problems such as diagnosis delay, difficulty finding a 16 medical expert, and lack of access to treatments or ancillary 17 services; and

18 WHEREAS, While the public is familiar with some rare diseases and 19 sympathetic to those affected, many patients and families affected by 20 less widely known rare diseases bear a large share of the burden of 21 funding research and raising public awareness to support the search 22 for treatments; and

1 WHEREAS, Thousands of residents of Washington are among 2 those affected by rare diseases since nearly one in 10 Americans 3 has a rare disease; and

4 WHEREAS, The Orphan Drug Act has encouraged and promoted the 5 discovery and development of biopharmaceuticals designed to 6 treat and even cure rare diseases; and

7 WHEREAS, Many of the world-leading academic institutions, 8 academic medical centers, biotech companies, and pharmaceutical 9 companies conducting research and seeking cures for rare
10 diseases are doing so in Washington;

11 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington state
12 Senate commend the endeavor of finding cures for rare diseases
13 and encourage all Washingtonians to recognize the struggle of 14 those afflicted and their families and commit to a future of 15 hope through compassionate care for our neighbors and scientific 16 discovery.

17 I, Sarah Bannister, Secretary of the Senate, 18 do hereby certify that this is a true and 19 correct copy of Senate Resolution 8684,
