By Representatives Barkis, Walen, Connors, Low, Jacobsen, and Caldier

Prefiled 12/17/24. Read first time 01/13/25. Referred to Committee on Housing.

1 AN ACT Relating to preparing for revisions to the residential
2 landlord-tenant act by creating a task force and establishing a
3 moratorium on new residential landlord-tenant regulations; adding a 4 new section to chapter 35.21 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 5 35A.21 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.01 RCW; creating new 6 sections; and providing an expiration date.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that the dynamic 9 nature of the residential rental market in Washington state
10 necessitates a thorough reevaluation of the existing residential 11 landlord-tenant act. Recognizing the fundamental importance of stable 12 housing for individuals and communities, it is evident that changes 13 in societal and economic conditions may have impacted the 14 effectiveness of the residential landlord-tenant act. Furthermore, 15 differences in local ordinances have prevented consistent delivery
16 and implementation of state law. The legislature acknowledges the 17 need to adapt and enhance the current regulatory framework to address 18 emerging challenges, ensure fair treatment for both landlords and 19 tenants, and uphold the principles of housing stability and equity.

20 (2) Therefore, the legislature intends to establish a task force
21 dedicated to a comprehensive study of the residential landlord-tenant

1 act. This task force will undertake a meticulous review of the 2 existing legislation, analyzing its provisions, enforcement
3 mechanisms, and practical implications. By soliciting input from 4 diverse stakeholders, including landlords, tenants, legal experts,
5 housing advocates, and industry representatives, the task force aims 6 to gain a nuanced understanding of the contemporary issues within the 7 residential rental sector. The legislature intends for this 8 collaborative effort to result in evidence-based recommendations for 9 potential amendments or enhancements to the residential landlord-10 tenant act, fostering a balanced and fair relationship between 11 landlords and tenants while addressing the evolving needs of 12 Washington's housing landscape.
