HOUSE BILL 1597

State of Washington

69th Legislature

2025 Regular Session

By Representatives Dent, Springer, Connors, Eslick, Barnard, Engell, and Reeves

Read first time 01/24/25. Referred to Committee on Labor & Workplace Standards.

1 AN ACT Relating to authorizing an agricultural employer to select 2 any 12 weeks in a calendar year as special circumstance weeks for 3 labor demand, during which in each of the selected 12 weeks, the 4 agricultural employer may employ agricultural employees for up to 50
5 hours before the requirement to pay overtime applies under RCW 6 49.46.130; amending RCW 49.46.130; creating a new section; and 7 declaring an emergency.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature recognizes the vital 10 importance of Washington's agricultural labor force and its 11 contributions to the state's cultural, economic, and social 12 diversity. The legislature also recognizes the economic burden placed 13 on agricultural workers through the enactment of the overtime pay 14 law. Since its inception, the law has had the unintended consequences 15 of reduced hours of employment and a corresponding loss of earned 16 income.

17 (2) In 2020, in a 5-4 opinion, the Washington supreme court ruled 18 in Martinez-Cuevas v. DeRuyter Bros. Dairy (DeRuyter) that the 19 existing exemption from overtime in agricultural employment was 20 unconstitutional as it applied to employment in the dairy industry.
21 In reaching its conclusion, the court distinguished between regular

1 hours worked in dairy production and the seasonal nature of 2 agricultural crop production. In 2021, the legislature repealed a 3 state law in effect since 1959 that exempted agricultural workers 4 from overtime pay, effectively extending the DeRuyter decision to all 5 production agriculture. With this historic legislation, Washington 6 became among the first states in the nation to impose an overtime pay 7 requirement for agricultural workers working more than 40 hours per 8 week. Recognizing that such a change would be a sizeable shift in 9 practice for all farmers and agricultural workers across the state, 10 the legislature adopted a phased-in approach, but did not address the 11 seasonal needs of Washington agriculture given the time-sensitive 12 nature of growing and harvesting mature field crops and perishable 13 fruits and vegetables.

14 (3) To assess potential impacts to Washington's agricultural 15 workforce, the legislature looks to the state of California that 16 adopted a similar phased-in policy in 2016 that came into full effect 17 in 2019, in which hours of work after 40 hours per week must be paid 18 overtime. In a study conducted by Alexandra E. Hill, assistant 19 professor in the department of agricultural and resource economics at 20 the University of California, Berkeley, she stated: "California's new 21 overtime law for agricultural workers went into effect in 2019. In 22 the two years following this, I find that the law led to decreases in 23 weekly working hours and earnings for California crop workers. These 24 losses are consistent with employers restricting hours to avoid 25 paying the higher overtime rates." California's experience is now 26 playing out in Washington as evidenced by nearly 300 farm workers 27 coming to the state capitol in January of 2024, demanding that the 28 current policy be changed and that their previous hours of employment 29 be reinstated.

30 (4) Agriculture is the second largest driver of Washington's 31 economy and is unique from other types of industry due to pressures 32 on farmers, ranchers, and workers caused by circumstances largely 33 beyond their control. These include the uncertainty of weather, 34 yields, livestock production, national and international shifts in 35 trade policy, and transportation inconsistencies.

36 (5) The legislature recognizes that in 2023, labor expenses per 37 farming operation in Washington were 462 percent higher than the 38 national average and Washington is currently losing on average, two 39 farms per day. The legislature further recognizes that farmers do not 40 control their own prices and cannot simply respond to increased

1 production costs by increasing the prices of their goods. What 2 farmers can do and have done is reduce hours for agricultural workers 3 and limit harvest production due to increased costs directly related 4 to the elimination of the overtime exemption. These economic 5 pressures are also impacting agriculture workers' mental health, and 6 agriculture suicides are nearly 25 percent higher than the overall 7 state rate. From 2020 through 2022, the suicide rate for agricultural 8 workers in Washington state was 21.1 per 100,000 people, compared 9 with 14.9 per 100,000 people for the state's general population.

10 (6) The legislature finds that it is reasonable to allow 11 agricultural employers limited flexibility to shape work schedules 12 during narrow windows of time to best fit the peaks of labor demand 13 for their crops and commodities and intends to make available limited 14 seasonal exemptions from the payment of overtime wages in furtherance 15 of its goal of ensuring security for agricultural workers and 16 maintaining the viability of Washington's second largest industry.

17 Sec. 2. RCW 49.46.130 and 2021 c 249 s 2 are each amended to 18 read as follows:

19 (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no employer 20 shall employ any of his or her employees for a workweek longer than 21 forty hours unless such employee receives compensation for his or her 22 employment in excess of the hours above specified at a rate not less 23 than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he or she is 24 employed.

25 (2) This section does not apply to:

26 (a) Any person exempted pursuant to RCW 49.46.010(3). The payment 27 of compensation or provision of compensatory time off in addition to 28 a salary shall not be a factor in determining whether a person is 29 exempted under RCW 49.46.010(3)(c);

30 (b) Employees who request compensating time off in lieu of 31 overtime pay;

32 (c) Any individual employed as a seaman whether or not the seaman
33 is employed on a vessel other than an American vessel;

34 (d) Seasonal employees who are employed at concessions and 35 recreational establishments at agricultural fairs, including those 36 seasonal employees employed by agricultural fairs, within the state 37 provided that the period of employment for any seasonal employee at 38 any or all agricultural fairs does not exceed fourteen working days a 39 year;

1 (e) Any individual employed as a motion picture projectionist if 2 that employee is covered by a contract or collective bargaining
3 agreement which regulates hours of work and overtime pay;

4 (f) An individual employed as a truck or bus driver who is 5 subject to the provisions of the Federal Motor Carrier Act (49 U.S.C.
6 Sec. 3101 et seq. and 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10101 et seq.), if the 7 compensation system under which the truck or bus driver is paid 8 includes overtime pay, reasonably equivalent to that required by this 9 subsection, for working longer than forty hours per week;

10 (g) Any individual employed as an agricultural employee. This 11 exemption from subsection (1) of this section applies only until 12 December 31, 2021;

13 (h) Any industry in which federal law provides for an overtime 14 payment based on a workweek other than forty hours. However, the 15 provisions of the federal law regarding overtime payment based on a 16 workweek other than forty hours shall nevertheless apply to employees 17 covered by this section without regard to the existence of actual 18 federal jurisdiction over the industrial activity of the particular 19 employer within this state. For the purposes of this subsection, 20 "industry" means a trade, business, industry, or other activity, or 21 branch, or group thereof, in which individuals are gainfully employed 22 (section 3(h) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended 23 (Public Law 93-259));

24 (i) Any hours worked by an employee of a carrier by air subject 25 to the provisions of subchapter II of the Railway Labor Act (45 26 U.S.C. Sec. 181 et seq.), when such hours are voluntarily worked by 27 the employee pursuant to a shift-trading practice under which the 28 employee has the opportunity in the same or in other workweeks to 29 reduce hours worked by voluntarily offering a shift for trade or 30 reassignment; and

31 (j) Any individual licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW unless the 32 individual is providing real estate brokerage services under a 33 written contract with a real estate firm which provides that the 34 individual is an employee. For purposes of this subsection (2)(j), 35 "real estate brokerage services" and "real estate firm" mean the same 36 as defined in RCW 18.85.011.

37 (3) No employer shall be deemed to have violated subsection (1) 38 of this section by employing any employee of a retail or service 39 establishment for a workweek in excess of the applicable workweek 40 specified in subsection (1) of this section if:

1 (a) The regular rate of pay of the employee is in excess of one
2 and one-half times the minimum hourly rate required under RCW 3 49.46.020; and

4 (b) More than half of the employee's compensation for a 5 representative period, of not less than one month, represents 6 commissions on goods or services.

7 In determining the proportion of compensation representing 8 commissions, all earnings resulting from the application of a bona 9 fide commission rate is to be deemed commissions on goods or services 10 without regard to whether the computed commissions exceed the draw or 11 guarantee.

12 (4) No employer of commissioned salespeople primarily engaged in 13 the business of selling automobiles, trucks, recreational vessels, 14 recreational vessel trailers, recreational vehicle trailers, 15 recreational campers, manufactured housing, or farm implements to 16 ultimate purchasers shall violate subsection (1) of this section with 17 respect to such commissioned salespeople if the commissioned 18 salespeople are paid the greater of:

19 (a) Compensation at the hourly rate, which may not be less than 20 the rate required under RCW 49.46.020, for each hour worked up to 21 forty hours per week, and compensation of one and one-half times that 22 hourly rate for all hours worked over forty hours in one week; or

23 (b) A straight commission, a salary plus commission, or a salary 24 plus bonus applied to gross salary.

25 (5) No public agency shall be deemed to have violated subsection 26 (1) of this section with respect to the employment of any employee in 27 fire protection activities or any employee in law enforcement 28 activities (including security personnel in correctional 29 institutions) if: (a) In a work period of twenty-eight consecutive 30 days the employee receives for tours of duty which in the aggregate 31 exceed two hundred forty hours; or (b) in the case of such an 32 employee to whom a work period of at least seven but less than 33 twenty-eight days applies, in his or her work period the employee 34 receives for tours of duty which in the aggregate exceed a number of 35 hours which bears the same ratio to the number of consecutive days in 36 his or her work period as two hundred forty hours bears to twenty-37 eight days; compensation at a rate not less than one and one-half 38 times the regular rate at which he or she is employed.

39 (6) (a) Beginning January 1, 2022, any agricultural employee shall 40 not be employed for more than 55 hours in any one workweek unless the

1 agricultural employee receives one and one-half times that
2 agricultural employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked over
3 55 in any one workweek.

4 (b) Beginning January 1, 2023, any agricultural employee shall 5 not be employed for more than 48 hours in any one workweek unless the 6 agricultural employee receives one and one-half times that
7 agricultural employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 8 48 in any one workweek.

9 (c) Beginning January 1, 2024, and except as provided in (d) of 10 this subsection, any agricultural employee shall not be employed for 11 more than 40 hours in any one workweek unless the agricultural 12 employee receives one and one-half times that agricultural employee's 13 regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in any one workweek.

14 (d) (i) An agricultural employer may select any 12 weeks in a 15 calendar year as special circumstance weeks for labor demand. During 16 each of the selected 12 weeks, the agricultural employer may employ 17 agricultural employees for up to 50 hours before the requirement to 18 pay overtime under this section applies.

19 (ii) In addition to the records required to be kept under RCW 20 49.30.020, an agricultural employer is responsible for maintaining 21 records of which special circumstance weeks were utilized.

22 (iii) An agricultural employer must provide an annual initial 23 disclosure of a good-faith estimate of the selected 12 weeks to their 24 agricultural employees at least 30 days in advance of the first 25 expected special circumstance week, or upon hiring for those who 26 start work fewer than 30 days in advance. For agricultural employees 27 employed under, and in compliance with federal requirements for, 28 temporary work visas, the disclosure of a good-faith estimate must be 29 made no later than the date of the worker's visa application, 30 contemporaneous with required federal preemployment written 31 disclosures to visa workers ordinarily due by the date of the 32 worker's visa application.

33 (iv) An agricultural employee must be provided written notice, at 34 least annually, of which weeks will be special circumstance weeks, no 35 later than the seventh day before the first special circumstance 36 week, or upon hiring for those starting work after the seventh day.
37 The employer may change which are the special circumstance weeks 38 after that notice if:

39 (A) The employer provides at least one week's written notice of 40 any week being added or removed as a special circumstance week;

1       (B) The initial disclosure was the employer's good-faith,
2 reasonable expectation of which weeks would be the special 3 circumstance weeks; and

4       (C) The changes are based on circumstances not foreseeable at the 5 time of the initial disclosure.

6       (7) (a) No damages, statutory or civil penalties, attorneys' fees 7 and costs, or other type of relief may be granted against an employer 8 to an agricultural or dairy employee seeking unpaid overtime due to 9 the employee's historical exclusion from overtime under subsection
10 (2)(g) of this section, as it existed on November 4, 2020.

11       (b) This subsection applies to all claims, causes of actions, and 12 proceedings commenced on or after November 5, 2020, regardless of 13 when the claim or cause of action arose. To this extent, this 14 subsection applies retroactively, but in all other respects it 15 applies prospectively.

16       (c) This subsection does not apply to dairy employees entitled to 17 back pay or other relief as a result of being a member in the class 18 of plaintiffs in Martinez-Cuevas v. DeRuyter Bros. Dairy, 196 Wn.2d 19 506 (2020).

20       (8) For the purposes of this section, "agricultural employee" 21 means any individual employed: (a) On a farm, in the employ of any 22 person, in connection with the cultivation of the soil, or in 23 connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or 24 horticultural commodity, including raising, shearing, feeding, caring 25 for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and 26 furbearing animals and wildlife, or in the employ of the owner or 27 tenant or other operator of a farm in connection with the operation, 28 management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm 29 and its tools and equipment; (b) in packing, packaging, grading, 30 storing or delivering to storage, or to market or to a carrier for 31 transportation to market, any agricultural or horticultural 32 commodity; or (c) (~~in~~) in commercial canning, commercial 33 freezing, or any other commercial processing, or with respect to 34 services performed in connection with the cultivation, raising, 35 harvesting, and processing of oysters or in connection with any 36 agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a 37 terminal market for distribution for consumption. An agricultural 38 employee does not include a dairy employee.

39       (9) For the purposes of this section, "dairy employee" includes 40 any employee engaged in dairy cattle and milk production activities

1 described in code 112120 of the North American industry
2 classification system.

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate 4 preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of 5 the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes 6 effect immediately.
