

WAC 132I-310-020 Time limitations. Anyone wishing to express a complaint, as previously defined, should do so no later than ten business days from the time the complainant knew or reasonably should have known of the concern. Timely initiation of a complaint rests with the complainant.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140. WSR 12-16-111, § 132I-310-020, filed 8/1/12, effective 9/1/12.]