

WAC 181-83-030 Internship requirements. An approved internship with a business, industry, or government agency shall meet the following requirements:

(1) A written plan for the internship experience shall be developed and approved jointly by the intern, a representative on behalf of the school district where the intern is employed, and a representative of the business, industry, or government agency where the internship will take place.

(2) The plan shall:

(a) Provide the intern with the opportunity to learn current practices in business, industry, or government;

(b) Identify the skills and knowledge that will be enhanced and any practical applications of such skills and knowledge in the curriculum they teach; and

(c) Indicate that the internship is directly related to the intern's current education assignment, or to his or her education assignment for the following school year.
