WAC 192-140-005 Filing weekly claims for benefits. (1) How do I file my weekly claim for benefits? You may file your claim using the department's online services or by calling the department's claims center. If you have a physical or sensory disability or are in unusual circumstances that make filing by telephone or online difficult, the commissioner may authorize other methods of filing a weekly claim.

(2) When do I file my weekly claim? You must file a claim for every week you want to be paid or have counted as your waiting week. Every week begins at 12:00 a.m. on Sunday and ends at 11:59 p.m. on Saturday. You must file your claim after the end of the week(s) you are claiming.

(a) File your claim using online services after 12:00 a.m. Sunday following the week you are claiming. If you file by electronic means, your claim is considered filed on the date of successful electronic transmission.

(b) File your telephone claim after 12:00 a.m. Sunday, but before 4:00 p.m. on Friday, following the week you are claiming. (In case of a legal holiday, file your claim before 4:00 p.m. on the last working day of the week.)

(c) File your paper claim anytime Sunday through Saturday following the week you are claiming. Your claim is considered filed on the postmarked date if you mail it.

(3) How often do I file my claim? File your claim weekly. The department may approve other filing schedules in cases of emergency or in unusual circumstances.

(4) What happens if I miss a week?

(a) If you do not claim a week, and not more than four consecutive weeks have elapsed since you last filed a claim, you may claim benefits for any of the four weeks prior to the week in which you contact the department to begin claiming again.

(b) If you do not claim a week, and more than four consecutive weeks have elapsed since you last filed a claim, you must reopen your claim as provided in WAC 192-110-050. The department will not pay you for any unclaimed weeks unless you show good cause for the late filing of those claims.

(5) What information do I have to report? Your claim must include answers to all the questions. The department cannot process a claim that does not meet this requirement.

WAC 192-140-025 What does "failure to respond" mean? (1)

"Failure to respond" means you do not report in person when directed to do so, or do not provide all requested information by the date indicated in a written request for information.

(2) If the request for information requires you to report in person and you respond in writing, you will be deemed to have failed to respond unless your written response provides specific information that will establish good cause for not reporting in person.

The department will presume that you are disqualified from or ineligible for benefits if you provide information indicating you are potentially disqualified from or ineligible for benefits, or fail to provide necessary information and do not respond to a request for specific information. The department will deny benefits based on this presumption.

(2) This denial is for an indefinite period of time and will continue until either:

(a) You provide the requested information;

(b) You qualify and are eligible for a new, separate unemployment claim and the information requested under subsection (1) of this section is not relevant for your new claim; or

(c) The request for information was made pursuant to a quality control review under 20 C.F.R. § 602.11 and your response is no longer needed for the quality control review.

(3) Once you provide the requested information, the department may issue a redetermination under RCW 50.20.160. The department will issue a new decision allowing benefits if you provide enough information to establish your qualification and eligibility for benefits.

WAC 192-140-098 What happens if the department suspects a claim is impacted by imposter fraud? (1) Imposter fraud occurs when someone files a claim using another individual's name or Social Security number without the individual's knowledge or consent.

(2) If the department discovers it has reason to suspect your claim is impacted by imposter fraud, the department will:

(a) Send you a request for information about the suspected imposter fraud; and

(b) If the claim is a continuing claim as defined in WAC 192-100-020, the department will:

(i) Pause determining your weekly eligibility and qualification for benefits, including any requested backdated weeks, until it resolves the suspected imposter fraud; and

(ii) Not make conditional payments, including for any requested backdated weeks, beginning the week in which the department discovered it had reason to suspect imposter fraud and until the department either issues a determination on the imposter fraud issue or until the end of the week following the week in which the discovery was made, whichever is sooner.

(c) If the claim is not a continuing claim, the department will not make any payments until it issues a determination on the imposter fraud issue. This determination will be made as soon as administratively feasible. If the claim is backdated, this pause will also apply to the backdated weeks.

(3) If you do not respond to the request for information about the suspected imposter fraud, or the information provided is insufficient to show the claim did not involve imposter fraud:

(a) The department will determine you are not eligible for receiving benefits and will deny benefits for an indefinite period of time; and

(b) An overpayment may be assessed for any previous benefits paid.

(4) If you provide the requested information and the department determines that imposter fraud has not occurred, the department will:

(a) If the claim is a continuing claim, resume determining weekly eligibility and qualification for benefits and pay benefits owed, if any.

(b) If the claim is not a continuing claim, determine if you are otherwise eligible and qualified to receive benefits.

(5) If the department has paused payment of your weekly benefits pursuant to subsection (2)(b) of this section and the department has not issued a determination denying benefits within the time frame specified in subsection (2)(b)(ii) of this section, the department will conditionally pay the paused weekly benefits by a payment method of the department's choosing.

(6) If an imposter files a claim using another individual's name or Social Security number without that individual's knowledge or consent:

(a) That individual is not responsible to repay sums improperly paid on the claim, unless the individual actually received the benefit payments; and

(b) The imposter fraud does not affect the individual's eligibility or qualification for benefits.
