

WAC 200-320-615 Cancellation of solicitation. An agency may cancel a solicitation or reject all bids after the bid opening, but before the award, if the agency determines that:

(1) The award will not achieve anticipated cost savings or efficiency improvements as required by RCW 41.06.142 (1)(e);

(2) The solicitation did not include all factors for the agency to determine cost savings or efficiency improvements;

(3) No responsive bid has been received from a responsible bidder;

(4) The solicitation and evaluation process was not fair, equitable, or objective; or

(5) There have been changes in business or market conditions that significantly impact the agency's original intent to competitively contract the service.
