- WAC 212-80-123 Voluntary relinquishment of certificates. (1) A certificate of competency holder may voluntarily relinquish his or her certificate to the director.
- (2) The relinquishment is effective when the certificate is received by the director.
- (3) After relinquishing the certificate, he or she will not be known as a certificate of competency holder or trainee and will desist from the practice thereof.
- (4) Within two years from the time of relinquishment of the certificate, he or she may again qualify for a certificate, with the approval of the director by submission of a reinstatement application and the payment of any required fee.
- (5) If two or more years have elapsed, he or she will return to the status of a new applicant.
