

WAC 308-93-530 Owner incompetent—Release of interest. Who is eligible to release interest on a vessel ownership document if the owner is declared incompetent?

The release of interest may be signed by either:

(1) The court appointed guardian, if one has been appointed by the court, may release interest in a vessel owned by an individual who has been declared incompetent.

(2) Durable power of attorney as provided in Title 11 RCW. A copy of the court order or the durable power of attorney appointing the guardian must accompany the release of interest.
