

WAC 352-40-110 What can I do if I object to the agency's denial to inspect or receive a copy of a public record? You have options. You can:

(1) Request an internal administrative review of the denial for access.

(a) Provide state parks' public records officer with your written request for a review of the decision. Include a copy of the denial or refer specifically to the denial statement in your petition.

(b) The public records officer will promptly provide the petition and any other relevant information to the director or designee to conduct a review.

(c) The director or designee will consider the matter and, within two business days of receiving the petition, or within such time as state parks and the requestor mutually agree, either affirm or reverse the denial. If the director or designee has not responded to the requestor by the end of the two business days following denial of access, then the request is deemed denied.

(2) Ask the attorney general's office to review the matter. Pursuant to RCW 42.56.530, the attorney general's office will provide a written opinion on whether the record is exempt.

(3) Initiate an action in the superior court.
