

WAC 352-80-060 Limitations on the availability and use of funds.

(1) The director may establish limitations on the availability and use of program funds. Any limitations shall be defined in the current application package. The director shall establish such limitations only after considering the following:

- (a) Consistency with the legislative intent of RCW 79A.05.351;
- (b) Availability of funds.

(2) The director may determine that applicants be required to make a matching contribution to be eligible for funding.

(3) The director may limit the amount of funding available for any element(s) of a program.
