

WAC 388-02-0140 May you waive interpreter services? (1) If you are limited English proficient, you may ask to waive interpreter services.

(2) You must make your request in writing or through a qualified interpreter on the record.

(3) The ALJ must determine if your waiver has been knowingly and voluntarily made.

(4) You may withdraw your waiver at any time before or during the hearing.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020. WSR 00-18-059, § 388-02-0140, filed 9/1/00, effective 10/2/00.]