- WAC 388-02-0560 What is review of an initial order by a review judge? (1) Review by a review judge is available to a party who disagrees with the ALJ's initial order.
- (2) If a party wants the initial order changed, the party must request that a review judge review the initial order.
- (3) If a request is made for a review judge to review an initial order, it does not mean there is another hearing conducted by a review judge.
- (4) The review judge considers the request, the initial order, and the record, and may hear oral argument, before deciding if the initial order should be changed.
 - (5) Review judges may not review ALJ final orders.
